If he agrees to remain at his station & do other work on being paid an allowance he forms his holidays & leave account advantageous to himself. How he can in addition to the allowance claim full pay privilege leave I am unable to understand. The case would perhaps be different in case he is declared in the act of his relieving. Or that

To

District Judge, Mysore Division.

Dated 4 December 1904

Sir,

In continuation of my application for privilege leave dated 8 November 1904, I have the honor to state that as my father on account of whose illness I came here died, and as in consequence I am unable to join my duty before the expiry of the leave granted to me, I request the favour of your kindly granting me leave for a further period of 15 days from the 9th December to 23rd December 1904 inclusive so that after availing myself of the Xmas holidays in continuation of the privilege leave I may join my duty.

I beg further to represent in connection with my leave that I am entitled to privilege leave on full pay for 27 days as I worked without any allowances as Vice President of the Chickmagalur Town Municipality and was a Magistrate in charge of the local jurisdiction of the Chickmagalur Taluk with respect to committal and breach of contract cases during the Court summer vacation of 1902. It is true I was paid an allowance of Rs 50 a month for being in charge of the District Treasury. This allowance is under Government Recordings payable for Treasury charge alone and was paid as such to several

Munsiff

Munsiffs who were placed only in charge of the District Treasury without any other work. In my case, in addition to the Treasury charge, I was placed specially in charge of the Municipality and was required to be a local Magistrate and as such I am entitled under Codal rules to privilege leave on full pay for the period I worked during the Vacation, viz, 27 Twentyseven days. I may be permitted to mention here that in a similar case for having worked during summer Vacation of 1901 for 18 days, I was allowed privilege leave on full pay for that period in January 1903. After taking into consideration the Government proceedings on the subject, the precedent quoted by me, I would respectfully request you to recommend to the Chief Court the fact of my being entitled to privilege leave for 27 days on full pay and get the necessary sanction permitting me to draw full pay for 27 days of my privilege leave.
